1. D. The Old Regime was the historic class and political structure of France under the monarchy. It included the First Estate, the clergy, who owned a great deal of land. Then came the Second Estate, or nobles, who also controlled a great amount of wealth. Finally, there was the Third Estate, which was divided into the bourgeoisie (well-educated artisans and capitalists) and the peasants. Peasants made up most of this Estate.
2. B. The Third Estate made up about 98% of the people. Despite not having most of the wealth in France, they paid more than their fair share in taxes. They also had little say in government.
3. A. The success of the American Revolution, along with the Enlightenment ideas that inspired it, helped bring about other revolutions around the globe.
4. D. The King and Queen were seen as out of touch, and inefficient leaders. While people starved in France, they spent money on a lavish lifestyle. They also spent a great deal of money supporting the Americans against the British in the American Revolution.
5. C. Storming of the Bastille (7/14/1789), Legislative Assembly declares war on Austria (1792), King Louis XVI is put on trial (1793), Execution of Robespierre (1794).
6. D. Robespierre seized power. He wanted to rid France of people who supported nobility and the monarchy. To do this, he established the Committee of Public Safety to sniff out enemies of the Republic.
7. C. Trafalgar was a naval battle that Napoleon lost to British commander Horatio Nelson off the coast of Spain.
8. B. To legislate for his Empire, a legal code was named in Napoleon's honor. Although the code gave equal rights to all men under the law, it limited freedom of speech. Furthermore, women's rights were decreased and male dominance was protected.
9. A. The Congress of Vienna was a meeting in Austria from 1814-1815. Led by Austrian Prince Klemens von Metternich, diplomats embraced ideas such as establishing a balance of power in Europe and restoring the legitimacy of the monarchs dethroned by Napoleon.
10. A. Known as the Liberator, Bolivar helped bring self-rule to South American countries including Colombia, Bolivia, Peru, and Venezuela.
11. D. Toussaint L'Ouverture led an uprising of slaves in Haiti that eventually led to its independence from France in 1804.
12. B. Just as the American Revolution inspired the French Revolution, the French Revolution inspired the Latin American ones. In addition, Enlightenment thought guided the people towards natural rights.
